

"There ought to be work for everybody in the United States who chooses to work, and our condition at home and our place in the world depends on everybody going to work," said President Harding in opening the unemployment conference in Washington. The photograph shows a group of the delegates. Among others in the front row are Secretary Hoover, Samuel Gompers and Charles M. Schwab.

Underwood & Underwood.

Miss Jeannette Rankin, former member of Congress, addressing a meeting of unemployed women in Union Square, New York.
Paul Thompson.

Former Prime Minister Venizelos of Greece was married the other day in London to Miss Helena Schillizzi, a Greek lady of wealth. The photograph was taken immediately after the ceremony.
International.

Miss Florence Haight, with her blue-ribbon winner Miss Darp and the trophy she won at the Greenwich Horse Show.
Paul Thompson.

Syngman Rhee, president of the provisional government of Korea, is in the United States to plead his country's cause before the armament conference at Washington.
(c) Harris & Ewing.

Jesse Guilford (left) of the Woodland Club, Boston, the new amateur golf champion of the United States, being congratulated by Robert A. Gardner of Chicago, whom he defeated.
Underwood & Underwood.

Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford, with their niece, Mary Pickford Rupp, sailing on the Olympic for Europe, where they may make a prolonged stay.
Underwood & Underwood.

The old battleship Alabama was wrecked and sunk by bombs dropped from planes off Tangier Island, Virginia, in tests directed by Brig.-Gen. Mitchell. The photograph shows the effect of two TNT missiles of 173 pounds each, released by the Martin bomber, seen overhead.
International.